LIFE members wade into the Scantic River to build a sluiceway inducing the flow of stagnant water behind the dam at Enfield.

PREFACE

Earth Day 1970 was the official beginning of a new American revolution by students and young people across America. On that day, the youth of the nation organized and demonstrated by their hard work and diligence their determination to clean up the environment lest we, like a society of lemmings, commit mass suicide by upsetting the balance of our environment through the poison of pollution.

To these young people across Connecticut who personally participated in one day programs and are engaged in continuing projects to clean up rivers and streams, remove litter and debris and expose and control pollution in this state and the United States, this edition of the Connecticut State Register and Manual is dedicated.

Typical of the corps of youthful volunteers who are taking positive action to remedy ecological problems is the group known as Lemmings Interested in a Favorable Environment (LIFE) at Enfield High School.

Under the leadership of George Newman, a member of the 1970 Senior Class, a campaign for action was started right in the high school building itself. The practice of burning plastic lunch plates, which caused a thick black smoke and caustic smell to spew from the school's chimney was discontinued.

LIFE members, working with a student teacher at the school, attended environmental seminars at American International College to gain more information and then set out to transpose theory into action.

Funds had been appropriated by Enfield's representative to the General Assembly for the establishment of the Scantic River Park in Enfield which will become one of the largest state parks in Connecticut.

The area was investigated by LIFE and found to be littered, polluted and generally in need of immediate attention. Realizing the insufficiency of town funds to support such a project, the young people selected this as their major Earth Day program. Some 350 students participated in a clean up of the Scantic River area. They built a dam, a sluice gate and created a swimming area from which they extricated old tires, bottles, cans and litter. This was coincidental with a campaign to prevent private citizens from dumping garbage and debris into the woodland and streams feeding the river.

In addition, the students organized and presented workshops and lectures climaxed by a showing of slides prepared by LIFE photographers to the Enfield Conservation Committee. These photographs pointed out the ravages of environmental decay, pollution in the community and offenses against the conservation laws along the Connecticut River.

These efforts reflect the activities of young people throughout Connecticut in contributing personally and effectively to environmental control and the preservation of LIFE. We salute their declaration of responsibility.

The 1970 edition of the Register and Manual was prepared under the dedicated supervision of Mrs. Ann Proctor, Publications Division Supervisor, and the members of her staff: Mrs. Alice Lynch, Mrs. Christina Parent and Mrs. Shirley Wheeler, to whom we extend our deep appreciation.

SECTION I—HISTORICAL

The Declaration of Independence is generally regarded as one of the most famous documents in the history of the world. On June 10, 1776, the Continental Congress appointed a committee, consisting of Thomas Jefferson, Benjamin Franklin, John Adams, Roger Sherman and Robert R. Livingston to draft a Declaration of Independence.

Jefferson wrote out a rough draft of the Declaration, which was carefully revised by the committee and presented to Congress for adoption. After some further slight revisions by that body, it was adopted on July 4, 1776, at Philadelphia.

The parchment with the original signatures was deposited with the Department of State when the government was organized in 1789.

The original Declaration of Independence was transferred from the Department of State, by direction of the late President Warren G. Harding, to the Library of Congress. In 1952, at the direction of Congress, it was transferred to the National Archives Building, Washington, D.C., where it rests today.

DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

In Congress, July 4, 1776

THE UNANIMOUS DECLARATION
THIRTEEN UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

When, in the course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume, among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the laws of nature and of nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed, by their Creator, with certain unalienable rights, that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.—That to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, that whenever any form of government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the right of the people to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new government, laying its foundation on such principles, and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their safety and happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate, that governments long established, should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shown, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same object, evinces a design to reduce them under absolute despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such government, and to provide new guards for their future security. Such has been the patient sufferance of these Colonies; and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former systems of government. The history of the present King of Great Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute tyranny over these States. To prove this, let facts be submitted to a candid world.

He has refused his assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good.

He has forbidden his governors to pass laws of immediate and pressing importance, unless suspended in their operations till his assent should be obtained; and when so suspended, he has utterly neglected to attend to them.

He has refused to pass other laws for the accommodation of large districts of people, unless those people would relinquish the right of representation in the legislature, a right inestimable to them, and formidable to tyrants only.

He has called together legislative bodies at places unusual, uncomfortable, and distant from the depository of their public records, for the sole purpose of fatiguing them into compliance with his measures.

He has dissolved representative houses repeatedly, for opposing with manly firmness his invasions on the rights of the people.

He has refused for a long time, after such dissolutions, to cause others to be elected; whereby the legislative powers, incapable of annihilation, have returned to the people at large for their exercise; the State remaining, in the meantime, exposed to all the dangers of invasion from without, and convulsions within.

He has endeavored to prevent the population of these States; for that purpose obstructing the laws for naturalization of foreigners; refusing to pass others to encourage their migrations hither, and raising the conditions of new appropriations of lands.

He has obstructed the administration of justice, by refusing his assent to laws for establishing judiciary powers.

He has made judges dependent on his will alone, for the tenure of their offices, and the amount and payment of their salaries.

He has erected a multitude of new offices, and sent hither swarms of officers to harass our people, and eat out their substance.

He has kept among us, in times of peace, standing armies, without the consent of our legislatures.

He has affected to render the military independent of and superior to the civil power.

He has combined with others to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitution, and unacknowledged by our laws; giving his assent to their acts of pretended legislation:

For quartering large bodies of armed troops among us:

For protecting them, by a mock trial, from punishment for any murders which they should commit on the inhabitants of these States:

For cutting off our trade with all parts of the world:

For imposing taxes on us without our consent:

For depriving us, in many cases, of the benefits of trial by jury:

For transporting us beyond seas to be tried for pretended offences:

For abolishing the free system of English laws in a neighboring province, establishing therein an arbitrary government, and enlarging its boundaries, so as to render it at once an example and fit instrument for introducing the same absolute rule into these Colonies:

For taking away our charters, abolishing our most valuable laws, and altering fundamentally the forms of our governments:

For suspending our own legislatures, and declaring themselves invested with power to legislate for us in all cases whatsoever.

He has abdicated government here, by declaring us out of his protection, and waging war against us.

He has plundered our seas, ravaged our coasts, burnt our towns, and destroyed the lives of our people.

He is, at this time, transporting large armies of foreign mercenaries to complete the works of death, desolation, and tyranny, already begun with circumstances of cruelty and perfidy, scarcely paralleled in the most barbarous ages, and totally unworthy the head of a civilized nation.

He has constrained our fellow-citizens, taken captive on the high seas, to bear arms against their country, to become the executioners of their friends and brethren, or to fall themselves by their hands.

He has excited domestic insurrections amongst us, and has endeavored to bring on the inhabitants of our frontiers, the merciless Indian savages, whose known rule of warfare is an undistinguished destruction of all ages, sexes, and conditions.

In every stage of these oppressions we have petitioned for redress in the most humble terms: our repeated petitions have been answered only by repeated injury. A prince, whose character is thus marked by every act which may define a tyrant, is unfit to be the ruler of a free people.

Nor have we been wanting in attentions to our British brethren. We have warned them, from time to time, of attempts by their legislature to extend an unwarrantable jurisdiction over us. We have reminded them of the circumstances of our emigration and settlement here. We have appealed to their native justice and magnanimity, and we have conjured them by the ties of our common kindred to disavow these usurpations, which would inevitably interrupt our connections and correspondence. They, too, have been deaf to the voice of justice and of consanguinity. We must, therefore, acquiesce in the necessity, which denounces our separation, and hold them, as we hold the rest of mankind, enemies in war, in peace friends.

We, therefore, the Representatives of the United States of America, in General Congress assembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions, do, in the name, and by the authority of the good people of these Colonies, solemnly publish and declare, that these United Colonies are, and of right ought to be, free and independent States; that they are absolved from all allegiance to the British crown, and that all political connection between them and the State of Great Britain is, and ought to be, totally dissolved; and that as free and independent States, they have full power to levy war, conclude peace, contract alliances, establish commerce, and to do all other acts and things which independent States may of right do. And for the support of this declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our lives, our fortunes, and our sacred honour.

The United States Constitution is the oldest federal constitution in existence. It was so well framed that it has served as the basis for this government for over a century and a half. Only once has it been seriously endangered, this being during the Civil War. Many of its principles have been adopted by other countries.

The Constitution was the outgrowth of a convention of delegates from the different states that met in Philadelphia in May, 1787, Rhode Island not being represented. George Washington presided over the convention, which lasted from May to September.

The Constitution was then submitted to the then existing states for ratification, with a provision that it should become effective when ratified by nine states. New Hampshire was the ninth state to ratify, June 21, 1788, and the Constitution went into effect in 1789.

The states ratified the Constitution in the following order: Delaware, Dec. 7; Pennsylvania, Dec. 12, and New Jersey, Dec. 18, 1787; Georgia, Jan. 2; Connecticut, Jan. 9; Massachusetts, Feb. 6; Maryland, Apr. 28; South Carolina, May 23; New Hampshire, June 21; Virginia, June 25, and New York, July 26, 1788; North Carolina, Nov. 21, 1789, and Rhode Island, May 29, 1790.

*CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

We the People of the United States, in Order to form a more perfect Union, establish Justice, insure domestic Tranquility, provide for the common defence, promote the general Welfare, and secure the Blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our Posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America.

ARTICLE I.

Section 1. All legislative Powers herein granted shall be vested in a Congress of the United States, which shall consist of a Senate and House of Representatives.

Section 2. The House of Representatives shall be composed of Members chosen every second Year by the People of the several States, and the Electors in each State shall have the Qualifications requisite for Electors of the most numerous Branch of the State Legislature.

No Person shall be a Representative who shall not have attained to the Age of twenty five Years, and been seven Years a Citizen of the United States, and who shall not, when elected be an Inhabitant of that State in which he shall be chosen.

Representatives and direct Taxes shall be apportioned among the several States which may be included within this Union, according to their respective Numbers, which shall be determined by adding to the whole Number of free Persons, including those bound to Service for a Term of Years, and excluding Indians not taxed, three fifths of all other Persons. The actual Enumeration shall be made within three Years after the first Meeting of the Congress of the United States, and within every subsequent Term of ten Years in such Manner as they shall by Law direct. The Number of Representatives shall not exceed one for every thirty Thousand, but each State shall have at Least one Representative; and until such enumeration shall be made, the State of New Hampshire shall be entitled to chuse three, Massachusetts eight, Rhode Island and Providence Plantations one, Connecticut five, New York six, New Jersey four, Pennsylvania eight, Delaware one, Maryland six, Virginia ten, North Carolina five, South Carolina five and Georgia three.

When vacancies happen in the Representation from any State, the Executive Authority thereof shall issue Writs of Election to fill such Vacancies.

The House of Representatives shall chuse their Speaker and other Officers; and shall have the sole Power of Impeachment.

Section 3. The Senate of the United States shall be composed of two Senators from each State, chosen by the Legislature thereof, for six Years; and each Senator shall have one Vote.

Immediately after they shall be assembled in Consequence of the first Election, they shall be divided as equally as may be into three Classes.

*Connecticut ratified the Constitution Jan. 9, 1788, having been the fifth State to vote for ratification.

The Seats of the Senators of the first Class shall be vacated at the Expiration of the second Year, of the second Class at the Expiration of the fourth Year, and of the third Class at the Expiration of the sixth Year, so that one third may be chosen every second Year; and if Vacancies happen by Resignation, or otherwise, during the Recess of the Legislature of any State, the Executive thereof may make temporary Appointments until the next Meeting of the Legislature, which shall then fill such Vacancies.

No Person shall be a Senator who shall not have attained to the Age of thirty Years, and been nine Years a Citizen of the United States, and who shall not, when elected, be an Inhabitant of that State for which he shall be chosen.

The Vice President of the United States shall be President of the Senate, but shall have no Vote unless they be equally divided.

The Senate shall chuse their other Officers, and also a President pro tempore, in the Absence of the Vice President, or when he shall exercise the Office of President of the United States.

The Senate shall have the sole Power to try all Impeachments. When sitting for that Purpose they shall be on Oath or Affirmation. When the President of the United States is tried, the Chief Justice shall preside: And no Person shall be convicted without the Concurrence of two thirds of the Members present.

Judgment in Cases of Impeachment shall not extend further than to removal from Office, and disqualification to hold and enjoy any Office of honor, Trust or Profit under the United States: but the Party convicted shall nevertheless be liable and subject to Indictment, Trial, Judgment and Punishment, according to Law.

Section 4. The Times, Places and Manner of holding Elections for Senators and Representatives, shall be prescribed in each State by the Legislature thereof; but the Congress may at any time by Law make or alter such Regulations, except as to the Places of chusing Senators.

The Congress shall assemble at least once in every Year, and such Meetings shall be on the first Monday in December, unless they shall by Law appoint a different Day.

Section 5. Each House shall be the Judge of the Elections, Returns and Qualifications of its own Members, and a Majority of each shall constitute a Quorum to do Business; but a smaller Number may adjourn from day to day, and may be authorized to compel the Attendance of absent Members, in such Manner, and under such Penalties as each House may provide.

Each House may determine the Rules of its Proceedings, punish its Members for disorderly Behavior, and with the Concurrence of two thirds, expel a Member.

Each House shall keep a Journal of its Proceedings, and from time to time publish the same, excepting such Parts as may in their Judgment require Secrecy; and the Yeas and Nays of the Members of either House on any question shall, at the Desire of one fifth of those Present, be entered on the Journal.

Neither House, during the Session of Congress, shall without the Consent of the other, adjourn for more than three days, nor to any other Place than that in which the two Houses shall be sitting.

Section 6. The Senators and Representatives shall receive a Compensation for their Services, to be ascertained by Law, and paid out of the Treasury of the United States. They shall in all Cases, except Treason, Felony and Breach of the Peace, be privileged from Arrest during their Attendance at the Session of their respective Houses, and in going to and returning from the same; and for any Speech or Debate in either House, they shall not be questioned in any other Place.

No Senator or Representative shall, during the Time for which he was elected, be appointed to any civil Office under the Authority of the United States, which shall have been created, or the Emoluments whereof shall have been encreased during such time; and no Person holding any Office under the United States, shall be a Member of either House during his Continuance in Office.

Section 7. All Bills for raising Revenue shall originate in the House of Representatives; but the Senate may propose or concur with Amendments as on other Bills.

Every Bill which shall have passed the House of Representatives and the Senate, shall, before it becomes a Law, be presented to the President of the United States; If he approve he shall sign it, but if not, he shall return it, with his Objections to that House in which it shall have originated, who shall enter the Objections at large on their Journal, and proceed to reconsider it. If after such Reconsideration two-thirds of that House shall agree to pass the Bill, it shall be sent, together with the objections to the other House, by which it shall likewise be reconsidered, and if approved by two-thirds of that House, it shall become a Law. But in all such Cases the Votes of both Houses shall be determined by yeas and nays, and the Names of the Persons voting for and against the Bill shall be entered on the Journal of each House respectively. If any Bill shall not be returned by the President within ten Days (Sundays excepted) after it shall have been presented to him, the Same shall be a Law, in like Manner as if he had signed it, unless the Congress by their Adjournment prevent its Return, in which Case it shall not be a law.

Every Order, Resolution, or Vote to which the Concurrence of the Senate and House of Representatives may be necessary (except on a question of Adjournment) shall be presented to the President of the United States; and before the Same shall take Effect, shall be approved by him, or being disapproved by him, shall be repassed by two-thirds of the Senate and House of Representatives, according to the Rules and Limitations prescribed in the Case of a Bill.

Section 8. The Congress shall have Power To lay and collect Taxes, Duties, Imposts and Excises, to pay the Debts and provide for the common Defence and general Welfare of the United States; but all Duties, Imposts and Excises shall be uniform throughout the United States;

To raise and support Armies, but no Appropriation of Money to that Use shall be for a longer Term than two Years;

To provide and maintain a Navy;

No Money shall be drawn from the Treasury, but in Consequence of Appropriations made by Law; and a regular Statement and Account of the Receipts and Expenditures of all public Money shall be published from time to time.

No Title of Nobility shall be granted by the United States: And no Person holding any office of Profit or Trust under them, shall, without the Consent of the Congress accept of any present, Emolument, Office, or Title, of any kind whatever, from any King, Prince, or foreign State.

Section 10. No State shall enter into any Treaty, Alliance, or Confederation; grant Letters of Marque and Reprisal; coin Money; emit Bills of Credit; make any Thing but gold and silver Coin a Tender in Payment of Debts; pass any Bill of Attainder, ex post facto Law, or Law impairing the Obligation of Contracts, or grant any Title of Nobility.

No State shall, without the Consent of the Congress, lay any Imposts or Duties on Imports or Exports, except what may be absolutely necessary for executing its inspection Laws: and the net Produce of All Duties and Imposts, laid by any State on Imports or Exports, shall be for the Use of the Treasury of the United States: and all such Laws shall be subject to the Revision and Controul of the Congress.

ARTICLE II.

Section 1. The executive Power shall be vested in a President of the United States of America. He shall hold his Office during the Term of four Years, and, together with the Vice President, chosen for the same Term, be elected, as follows:

Each State shall appoint, in such Manner as the Legislature thereof may direct, a Number of Electors, equal to the whole Number of Senators and Representatives to which the State may be entitled in the Congress: but no Senator or Representative or Person holding an office of Trust or Profit under the United States, shall be appointed an Elector.

The Electors shall meet in their respective States, and vote by Ballot for two Persons, of whom one at least shall not be an Inhabitant of the same State with themselves. And they shall make a List of all the Persons voted for, and of the Number of Votes for each; which List they shall sign and certify, and transmit sealed to the Seat of the Government of the United States, directed to the President of the Senate. The President of the Senate shall, in the Presence of the Senate and House of Representatives, open all the Certificates, and the Votes shall then be counted. The Person having the greatest Number of Votes shall be the President, if such Number be a Majority of the whole Number of Electors appointed; and if there be more than one who have such Majority, and have an equal Number of Votes, then the House of Representatives shall immediately chuse by Ballot one of them for President; and if no Person have a Majority, then from the five highest on the list the said House shall in like Manner chuse the President. But in chusing the President, the Votes shall be taken by States, the Representation from each State having one Vote; a quorum for this Purpose shall consist of a Member or Members from two-thirds of the States, and a Majority of all the States shall be necessary to a Choice. HISTORICAL ANTECEDENTS

THE FIRST CONSTITUTION OF CONNECTICUT

The "Fundamental Orders," 1638–9.

"Voted" January 14, 1638, the Fundamental Orders were the beginning of Connecticut as a commonwealth. Their spirit was that of a sermon preached by the Rev. Thomas Hooker a short time before their adoption, in the course of which he laid down the proposition "The foundation of authority is laid in the free consent of the people," and which he closed with the challenge: "As God has given us liberty let us take it." They recognized no allegiance on the part of the colonists to England but in effect set up an independent government. In the sense that they were intended to be a framework of government more permanent than the usual orders adopted by the General Court, they were in essence a constitution. The historian John Fiske was justified in his statement that this instrument was "the first written constitution known to history that created a government and it marked the beginning of American democracy." While in 1662 the Fundamental Orders were in a sense superseded by the charter, that document, drawn up in the colony and taken to England by its representative, was never regarded by the colonists as the source of their government, but as a protection for and guaranty of the government they had already set up for themselves. So it was that for forty years after the independence of this nation, Connecticut could still carry on its government under the charter. And so it is that this commonwealth has preserved a continuity of development beyond that of almost any other state or nation in the world.

Forasmuch as it hath pleased the Almighty God by the wise disposition of his divine providence so to order and dispose of things that we the Inhabitants and Residents of Windsor, Hartford, and Wethersfield are now cohabiting and dwelling in and upon the River of Connectecotte and the lands thereunto adjoining; and well knowing where a people are gathered together the word of God requires that to maintain the peace and union of such a people there should be an orderly and decent Government established according to God, to order and dispose of the affairs of the people at all seasons as occasion shall require; do therefore associate and conjoin ourselves to be as one Public State or Commonwealth; and do for ourselves and our Successors and such as shall be adjoined to us at any time hereafter, enter into Combination and Confederation together, to maintain and preserve the liberty and purity of the Gospel of our Lord Jesus which we now profess, as also the discipline of the Churches, which according to the truth of the said Gospel is now practiced amongst us; as also in our Civil affairs to be guided and governed according to such Laws, Rules, Orders, and Decrees as shall be made, ordered, and decreed as followeth:—

1. It is Ordered, sentenced, and decreed, that there shall be yearly two General Assemblies or Courts, the one the second Thursday in April, the other the second Thursday in September following; the first shall be called the Court of Election, wherein shall be yearly chosen from time to time so many Magistrates and other public Officers as shall be found requisite:

Whereof one to be chosen Governor for the year ensuing and until another be chosen, and no other Magistrate to be chosen for more than one year: provided always there be six chosen besides the Governor, which being chosen and sworn according to an Oath recorded for that purpose, shall have power to administer justice according to the Laws here established, and for want thereof, according to the rule of the Word of God; which choice shall be made by all that are admitted freemen and have taken the Oath of Fidelity, and do cohabit within this Jurisdiction (*Having been admitted Inhabitants by the major part of the Town wherein they live) or the major part of such as shall be then present.

2. It is Ordered, sentenced, and decreed, that the Election of the aforesaid Magistrates shall be on this manner: every person present and qualified for choice shall bring in (to the persons deputed to receive them) one single paper with the name of him written in it whom he desires to have Governor, and he that hath the greatest number of papers shall be Governor for that year. And the rest of the Magistrates or public officers to be chosen in this manner: the Secretary for the time being shall first read the names of all that are to be put to choice and then shall severally nominate them distinctly, and every one that would have the person nominated to be chosen shall bring in one single paper written upon, and he that would not have him chosen shall bring in a blank; and every one that hath more written papers than blanks shall be a Magistrate for that year; which papers shall be received and told by one or more that shall be then chosen by the court and sworn to be faithful therein; but in case there should not be six chosen as aforesaid, besides the Governor, out of those which are nominated, then he or they which have the most written papers shall be a Magistrate or Magistrates for the ensuing year, to make up the aforesaid number.

3. It is Ordered, sentenced, and decreed, that the Secretary shall not nominate any person, nor shall any person be chosen newly into the Magistracy which was not propounded in some General Court before, to be nominated the next Election; and to that end it shall be lawful for each of the Towns aforesaid by their deputies to nominate any two whom they conceive fit to be put to election; and the Court may add so many more as they judge requisite.

4. It is Ordered, sentenced, and decreed, that no person be chosen Governor above once in two years, and that the Governor be always a member of some approved congregation, and formerly of the Magistracy within this Jurisdiction; and all the Magistrates, Freemen of this Commonwealth; and that no Magistrate or other public officer shall execute any part of his or their office before they are severally sworn, which shall be done in the face of the court if they be present, and in case of absence by some deputed for that purpose.

5. It is Ordered, sentenced, and decreed, that to the aforesaid Court of Election the several Towns shall send their deputies, and when the Elections are ended they may proceed in any public service as at other Courts. Also the other General Court in September shall be for making of laws, and any other public occasion, which concerns the good of the Commonwealth.

*This clause was interlined in a different handwriting, and is of a later date. It was adopted by the General Court of November, 1643.

6. It is Ordered, sentenced, and decreed, that the Governor shall, either by himself or by the Secretary, send out summons to the Constables of every Town for the calling of these two standing Courts one month at least before their several times: And also if the Governor and the greatest part of the Magistrates see cause upon any special occasion to call a General Court, they may give order to the Secretary so to do within fourteen days' warning: and if urgent necessity so required, upon a shorter notice, giving sufficient grounds for it to the deputies when they meet, or else be questioned for the same; And if the Governor and major part of Magistrates shall either neglect or refuse to call the two General standing Courts or either of them, as also at other times when the occasions of the Commonwealth require, the Freemen thereof, or the major part of them, shall petition to them so to do; if then it be either denied or neglected, the said Freemen, or the major part of them, shall have power to give order to the Constables of the several Towns to do the same, and so may meet together, and choose to themselves a Moderator, and may proceed to do any act of power which any other General Courts may.

7. It is Ordered, sentenced, and decreed, that after there are warrants given out for any of the said General Courts, the Constable or Constables of each Town, shall forthwith give notice distinctly to the inhabitants of the same, in some public assembly or by going or sending from house to house, that at a place and time by him or them limited and set, they meet and assemble themselves together to elect and choose certain deputies to be at the General Court then following to agitate the affairs of the Commonwealth; which said deputies shall be chosen by all that are admitted Inhabitants in the several Towns and have taken the oath of fidelity; provided that none be chosen a Deputy for any General Court which is not a Freeman of this Commonwealth.

The aforesaid deputies shall be chosen in manner following: every person that is present and qualified as before expressed, shall bring the names of such, written in several papers, as they desire to have chosen for that employment, and these three or four, more or less, being the number agreed on to be chosen for that time, that have greatest number of papers written for them shall be deputies for that Court; whose names shall be endorsed on the back side of the warrant and returned into the Court, with the constable or constables' hand unto the same.

8. It is Ordered, sentenced, and decreed, that Windsor, Hartford, and Wethersfield shall have power, each Town, to send four of their Freemen as their deputies to every General Court; and Whatsoever other Town shall be hereafter added to this Jurisdiction, they shall send so many deputies as the Court shall judge meet, a reasonable proportion to the number of Freemen that are in the said Towns being to be attended therein; which deputies shall have the power of the whole Town to give their votes and allowance to all such laws and orders as may be for the public good, and unto which the said Towns are to be bound.

9. It is Ordered and decreed, that the deputies thus chosen shall have power and liberty to appoint a time and a place of meeting together before any General Court, to advise and consult of all such things as may concern the good of the public, as also to examine their own Elections, whether according to the order, and if they or the greatest part of them find any election to be illegal they may seclude such for present from their meeting, and return the same and their reasons to the Court; and if it prove true, the Court may fine the party or parties so intruding, and the Town, if they see cause, and give out a warrant to go to a new election in a legal way, either in part or in whole. Also the said deputies shall have power to fine any that shall be disorderly at their meetings, or for not coming in due time or place according to appointment; and they may return the said fines into the Court if it be refused to be paid, and the Treasurer to take notice of it, and to escheat or levy the same as he does other fines.

10. It is Ordered, sentenced, and decreed, that every General Court, except such as through neglect of the Governor and the greatest part of Magistrates the Freemen themselves do call, shall consist of the Governor, or some one chosen to moderate the Court, and four other Magistrates at least, with the major part of the deputies of the several Towns legally chosen; and in case the Freemen, or major part of them, through neglect or refusal of the Governor and major part of the Magistrates, shall call a Court, it shall consist of the major part of Freemen that are present or their deputies, with a Moderator chosen by them: In which said General Courts shall consist the supreme power of the Commonwealth, and they only shall have power to make laws or repeal them, to grant levies, to admit of Freemen, dispose of lands undisposed of, to several Towns or persons, and also shall have power to call either Court or Magistrate or any other person whatsoever into question for any misdemeanor, and may for just causes displace or deal otherwise according to the nature of the offense; and also may deal in any other matter that concerns the good of this Commonwealth, except election of Magistrates, which shall be done by the whole body of Freemen.

In which Court the Governor or Moderator shall have power to order the Court, to give liberty of speech, and silence unseasonable and disorderly speakings, to put all things to vote, and in case the vote be equal to have the casting voice. But none of these Courts shall be adjourned or dissolved without the consent of the major part of the Court.

11. It is Ordered, sentenced, and decreed, that when any General Court upon the occasions of the Commonwealth have agreed upon any sum, or sums of money to be levied upon the several Towns within this Jurisdiction, that a committee be chosen to set out and appoint what shall be the proportion of every Town to pay of the said levy, provided the committee be made up of an equal number out of each Town.

14th January 1638 the 11 Orders above said are voted.

REPRESENTATIVES IN CONGRESS FROM CONNECTICUT SINCE 1789

Previous to 1837 the Representatives from this State were elected by the people at large. The number at first, under the Constitution, was five and by later apportionments was changed in 1793 to seven, in 1823 to six, and in 1843 to four. From 1837 to 1843 they were elected one from each of the six districts into which the state was divided by an Act of the General Assembly; from 1843 to 1911 they were elected, one from each of the four districts established by the General Assembly of 1842, as follows: District number one, consisting of the counties of Hartford and Tolland; district number two, the counties of New Haven and Middlesex; district number three, the counties of New London and Windham; district number four, the counties of Fairfield and Litchfield. A fifth representative, to which the state was entitled under the census of 1900, was chosen at large. At the session of 1911 the state was divided into five districts as follows: District No. 1, County of Hartford; District No. 2, Counties of Tolland, Windham, New London and Middlesex; District No. 3, Towns of Bethany, Branford, Cheshire, East Haven, Guilford, Hamden, Madison, Meriden, Milford, New Haven, North Branford, North Haven, Orange, Wallingford, West Haven and Woodbridge in County of New Haven; District No. 4, County of Fairfield; District No. 5, County of Litchfield and the Towns of Ansonia, Beacon Falls, Derby, Middlebury, Naugatuck, Oxford, Prospect, Seymour, Southbury, Waterbury and Wolcott in the County of New Haven. The 1921 session of the General Assembly enacted a law creating the office of congressman-at-large if a reapportionment stemming from the 1920 census gave Connecticut a sixth congressional seat. However, Congress did not reapportion until after the 1930 census and, at this time, the State received the sixth post of congressman-at-large. A 1931 act of the General Assembly stated this representative was to be "designated as 'Representative at Large.'" The state was divided into six districts by Act of the General Assembly in Special Session, April 1964, abolishing the post of Representative-at-Large.

In instances where no districts are given, the elections were at large.

GOVERNORS OF CONNECTICUT

The supreme executive power of the State is vested by the Constitution in the Governor. He has the power to administer oaths, sign writs, issue processes, and to see that the laws of the State are faithfully executed. In case of emergency he may convene the General Assembly in special session. He is commander-in-chief of the militia of the State, has power to grant reprieves in all cases except impeachment, and has jurisdiction in the matter of requisitions from other states for criminals. He has power to veto any bills passed by the General Assembly, but his veto may be overridden by at least a two-thirds majority vote of each House upon reconsideration. Any bill which is neither signed nor vetoed by him within five days after being presented to him (Sundays and legal holidays excepted) during the session of the General Assembly, becomes a law, in like manner as if signed by him. After adjournment of the General Assembly he is allowed fifteen calendar days after bills have been presented to him in which to act. The Governor must also present a biennial budget for the State early in the sessions of each General Assembly and has control over the quarterly allotments granted after the budget has been acted on by the General Assembly. He must from time to time give to the General Assembly information concerning the State and recommend such measures as he deems expedient. He may adjourn the General Assembly in case of disagreement between the two Houses to such time as he thinks proper, but not beyond the day of the next stated session. He nominates to the General Assembly the judges of the Supreme, Superior, Common Pleas, Juvenile, Circuit Courts and the Chief Court Administrator; and appoints, with the consent of the Senate, the State Water Resources Commissioners, State Park and Forest Commissioners and members of several other boards and commissions; and appoints, with the advice and consent of either House of the General Assembly, the Commissioner on Aging, the Commissioner of Agriculture and Natural Resources, Bank Commissioner, Commissioner of Children and Youth Services, Commissioner of Community Affairs, Commissioner of Consumer Protection, Commissioner of Correction, the Commissioner of Finance and Control, Commissioner of Health, Insurance Commissioner, Labor Commissioner, Commissioner of Mental Health, Commissioner of Motor Vehicles, Personnel Commissioner, Tax Commissioner, Commissioner of Transportation, Public Works Commissioner, Welfare Commissioner, and the Public Utilities Commissioners. The Governor appoints, with the consent of both Houses, members of the State Board of Education and the Commission for Higher Education. He appoints directly the Board of Trustees, University of Connecticut, Liquor Control Commissioners, Police Commissioner, and the members of various other boards and commissions. He is ex-officio a member of the Conn. Agricultural Experiment Station, Board of Education and Services for the Blind, State Bond Commission, Civil Defense Advisory Council, Expressway Bond Committee, Finance Advisory Committee, State Geological and Natural History Survey, Commission on Intergovernmental Cooperation, Commissioners of Steamship Terminals, Education Commission of the States, Board of Trustees of University of Connecticut, and the Corporation of Yale University.

The Governor presided over the General Assembly before it was divided into two Houses in 1698; from that date until the adoption of the Constitution of 1818 he presided in the council or upper house, with a casting vote, but no veto power. At the present time the Lieutenant Governor presides over the Senate.

The title of His Excellency was given to the Governor by an act passed in May, 1777.

The Governor holds office for four years and receives an annual salary of $35,000. The Governor also is furnished a Governor's Residence located at 990 Prospect Avenue, Hartford.

DEPUTY OR LIEUTENANT GOVERNORS

Before the Constitution of 1818 the Deputy Governor presided in council, or the upper house of the General Assembly, in the absence of the Governor, but when the Governor was present the Deputy Governor had a voice in council. Until 1818 he could exercise the office of a justice of the peace throughout the State, and he could sign writs until 1879.

The Lieutenant Governor is president of the Senate, has a casting vote therein, and the right to debate when it is in Committee of the Whole. In case of the death, resignation, refusal to serve, inability to perform the powers and duties of his office, impeachment, removal from office or absence from the State of the Governor, the Lieutenant Governor is required by the Constitution "to perform the duties of the Governor, until another be chosen at the next regular election for Governor and be duly qualified, or until the disability be removed, or until the Governor impeached or absent, shall be acquitted or return." He is ex-officio a member of the Finance Advisory Committee, Commission on Intergovernmental Cooperation, Civil Defense Advisory Council, Executive Committee on Human Rights and Opportunities, and the Corporation of Yale University.

The title of His Honor was conferred upon the Lieutenant Governor at the revision of the Statutes in 1784.

He is elected for four years and receives an annual salary of $10,000.

The names of those who are now living are marked*.

SECRETARIES OF THE STATE

After the adoption of the Fundamental Orders, Edward Hopkins was chosen as the first Secretary of the State. Since that date, the duties assigned to the Secretary of the State have grown with the growth of Connecticut and its increasing governmental activities. Today, the office has more than fifty constitutional or statutory duties to perform.

The office is charged with custody of the public documents and formal records of the State, among the more important of which are the Acts and Resolutions, and Orders of the General Assembly.

The department has been assigned the duty of administration of the laws relative to corporations created under the provisions of the General Statutes. This task includes the approval of all certificates of incorporation, organization and dissolution to mention only a few of the items in this large volume of business.

The Secretary of the State, by virtue of the office, is the Commissioner of Elections and supervises the filing and checking of all petitions for party designation on ballots and voting machine labels; approves all voting machines for accuracy and efficiency; receives and files lists of candidates for office; administers the primary law, and supplies local election officials with instructions and samples of supplies for use in connection with voting machines. Election statistics are returned to this office and recorded, as are also the returns required under the Campaign Financing and Disclosure Act.

The Secretary of the State supervises the publication of the Connecticut State Register and Manual, the Special Laws of Connecticut, the Statement of Vote, the Preliminary Manual of the General Assembly, the Public Acts from Passage, and individual volumes devoted to Corporation Laws, Election Laws, Voters Handbook, Moderators Handbook and Handbook for Admission of Electors, and distributes historical materials including The Outline of Government in Connecticut, The Constitution of Connecticut and Its Trilogy of Antecedents.

Included in a group of miscellaneous functions are the calling of the Senate to order and administration of the official oath on the first day of each session; certification of copies of official records, the affixation of the Seal to all commissions issued in the name of and by the State, and records concerned with legislative appearances.

Duties added to the office by recent General Assemblies include the publication and distribution of all administrative regulations issued by State agencies and commissions and the maintenance of a Division of Professional and Vocational Licensing, charged with keeping a central registry of information concerning state licensing boards and commissions.

The Secretary of the State issues certificates to approximately 24,000 notaries public and also receives and files financial statements of certain labor unions.

The trading stamp law places under the jurisdiction of the Secretary the licensing of trading stamp companies doing business in this state. Under the law each trading stamp company must file a statement of registration containing certain required information and a bond for performance.

In accordance with the "Right to Know" legislation passed by the 1967 session of the General Assembly, the yearly schedule of meetings of the administrative and executive boards, commissions, agencies, bureaus and committees of the State of Connecticut are filed with the Secretary of the State on or before January 31 of each year.

The Secretary of the State receives and files certain commercial transactions where title is affected by a security interest as provided under the Uniform Commercial Code Act.

The 1963 Trademark Law requires all marks more than ten years old to be re-registered with the Secretary of the State.

Every city, town and borough is required, by law, to have on file in this office complete compilation of their ordinances and special acts and to supplement same biennially.

The office of Secretary of the State is a revenue producing agency, with receipts deposited to the General Fund for fiscal 1970 approximately two and one-half million dollars. These revenues are derived from corporation filing and franchise fees, notary public fees, uniform commercial code fees and from sales of publications and services.

The Secretary of the State is a member of the State Board of Canvassers.

Election to the office of Secretary of the State is for a term of four years, at an annual salary of $15,000.

COMPTROLLERS

The office of Comptroller was created in 1786 by virtue of an act of the General Assembly and thereafter until 1838 appointments to this office were made by the General Assembly. The Constitutional Amendment of 1836 provided that the Comptroller be elected by the people, in a manner similar to that of other State Officers, and since the year 1838 this method has been in effect.

Previous to the establishment of this office, orders on the Treasurer might be drawn by the Governor, or assistants, or by justices of the peace for sums under forty shillings. The Committee of the Pay-Table, which this office superseded, was originally established to liquidate and adjust accounts of expenses relating to the War of the Revolution.

The Comptroller is required to adjust and settle all public accounts and demands, excepting grants and orders of the General Assembly. The prescribing of the mode of keeping and rendering all public accounts is his responsibility. He shall establish an accounting procedure applicable to all receipts at the source of their collection. Periodically, the Comptroller renders an accounting of the State's debts and credits. He presents all claims in favor of the State against estates of insolvent, bankrupt or deceased persons, and brings suit for the recovery of money and property belonging to the State.

All obligations against the State, whether they be purchase order, contract or otherwise, are approved and recorded by the Comptroller. Any purchase order, or contract, is void unless it carries his approval and certificate that it is recorded and charged against the applicable specific appropriation and that there are sufficient unencumbered funds. A copy of such certified purchase order, or contract, is then transmitted by him to the respective vendor or contractor.

The official accounting records of all State departments and institutions are maintained in his office. The compilation of employees' payrolls for all State departments and institutions is another of his responsibilities, as also is the providing of furniture, standard forms, and other necessary articles for all State offices and for the General Assembly.

At the opening of each regular session of the General Assembly, and more often if required, he submits to this body an abstract of the receipts and expenditures of the public funds for the two years ending the 30th of June preceding, and plans and estimates relating to the public expenditures, revenues and funds.

The Comptroller, by direction of the General Assembly, administers numerous miscellaneous expense accounts of the State. The total expenditures from these accounts, plus the cost of operating the Comptroller's office, and the expenditures from trust funds whose payments originate in the Comptroller's office exceed $50,000,000 a biennium.

He is a member and secretary of the Employees' Retirement Commission, records of which, together with Social Security, are administered in his office; a member of the State Board of Canvassers; a member of the following committees, State Employees' Group Insurance Commission, Forms and Procedure Appeal Committee, Hospital Cost Commission, Expressway Bond Committee, State Bond Commission, State Banking Commission, and an ex-officio member of the State Insurance Purchasing Board, Finance Advisory Committee, Board to Assess Municipal Liability (Riots), Committee on Bonding of State Officers and Employees, Hardship Committee on School Building Grants, State Employees Suggestion Awards Board, State Employees Group Hospitalization and Medical Insurance Commission. He is also, ex-officio, one of the Auditors of the Treasurer's accounts.

Elected for a term of four years, the Comptroller receives an annual salary of $15,000.

The office of Attorney General was created by the General Assembly of 1897. The incumbent is elected by the people, in the same manner as the other State officers and must be an attorney-at-law of at least ten years active practice at the Bar of this State.

His duties include a general supervision over all legal matters in which the State is an interested party, except those over which prosecuting officers have direction. He is required to appear for the State, the several elective State officers, the State boards, commissions, agents, etc., and institutions, in all suits and other civil proceedings, excepting upon criminal recognizances and bail bonds, in which the State is a party or is interested, or in which the official acts and doings of said officers are called in question in any court or other tribunal. He is called upon to give his opinion upon questions of law submitted to him by either branch of the General Assembly, to appear before legislative committees, when measures affecting the State treasury are pending, and take such action as he may deem to be for the best interests of the State, and act as general counsel for State officials in matters pertaining to their official duties.

He is elected for a term of four years and receives an annual salary of $20,000.

CHIEF JUSTICES

The highest court in Connecticut was the General Assembly, until 1784, when it relinquished its functions as an appellate tribunal to the upper house, which, when sitting for these purposes, was designated as the Supreme Court of Errors. The presiding officer or Chief Judge was at first the Deputy Governor, and later the Governor. In 1807 the membership of this court was completely changed by substituting, under an Act of the preceding year, the Judges of the Superior Court, the Chief Judge of which became the presiding officer. The customary appellation was for some years, Chief Judge, but in the Constitution of 1818 the term Chief Justice was employed and confirmed a practice already established in that respect.

The outstanding career of United States Representative William L. St. Onge from Connecticut's Second Congressional District was tragically concluded by his untimely death on May 1, 1970.

Congressman St. Onge gave all of his strength and finally his life to the service of his beloved District, State and Nation. The compassion and concern, courage and commitment that were the benchmarks of this service were positive demonstration of his belief that "working for the people" was truly the noblest profession.

Born in Putnam, he was graduated from Putnam High School as president of the Senior Class. He attended St. Thomas Seminary in Bloomfield and studied at the Grand Seminary of St. Brieuc in France and at L'Ecole des Sciences Politiques in Paris. A veteran of the U.S. Army Air Corps, Congressman St. Onge served in North Africa, Italy, Corsica, France and Germany from 1942 to 1945 and was awarded five battle stars. After admission to the Connecticut Bar in 1948 he served his community as Judge of Probate, Prosecuting Attorney and Judge of the Putnam City Court, chairman of the Putnam Housing Authority, Director of the Redevelopment Agency, and Mayor.

He was elected to Congress in 1962 and was standing for reelection to a fifth consecutive term at the time of his death. His distinguished career was reflected in his service on the Judiciary Committee and the Merchant Marine and Fisheries Committee in Washington. In addition to his work on these two major committees he was also a member of Subcommittees on Patents, Trademarks, Copyrights and Revision of Laws, and on Merchant Marine, Coast Guard and Oceanography, as well as the Special Subcommittee on Submerged Lands. He was a member of the Congressional Board of Visitors to the U.S. Coast Guard Academy in New London.

TOWNS, CITIES AND BOROUGHS

The following list of municipal officers and justices of the peace was compiled from returns filed with the Secretary of the State by the local municipal clerks through June 30, 1970. Where the name of the post office or express office address of the town clerk, town treasurer or first selectman is other than that of the town itself, it is given.

Statistics of towns, cities and boroughs are also secured from the clerks of the several municipalities annually, and upon them we depend for the accuracy of the data herein set forth. The area of the towns (total area of land and inland water) is taken from "Area Measurement Reports, Areas of Connecticut, 1960" by U.S. Dept. of Commerce, Bureau of the Census, May 1967. The populations of towns are taken from the estimated populations as of July 1, 1970, by the Conn. State Dept. of Health. The children are those between the ages of 0 and 20 years, incl., enumerated September, 1969.

CONNECTICUT FROM 1782 TO 1960

The census of 1774 embraces as a part of Litchfield County "Westmoreland, 1,922" presumably the Pennsylvania tract at that time claimed by Connecticut. "Fair Haven, 1,317" and "Westville, 871" are included in the figures for 1850. The creation of new towns explains many apparent losses in population of the older ones. See section "Towns, Cities and Boroughs," in this volume.

CONNECTICUT TOWNS IN THE ORDER OF THEIR ESTABLISHMENT; WITH THE ORIGIN OF THEIR NAMES

Until 1700 almost the only official action of the colonial government (General Court) in regard to town organization, was to authorize the town name, usually chosen by its leading man, from his home in England. In October, 1700, we find implied or quasi incorporation, such as exists to this day in the records. "This assembly doth grant to the inhabitants of the town of Lebanon all such immunities, privileges and powers, as generally other townes within this Colonie have and doe enjoy." The authoritative legal definition of a town in England, contemporary with the earliest Connecticut settlements is given in the first edition of Coke's Commentaries upon Littleton, published 1628: "It can not be a town in law, unless it hath, or in past time hath had, a church, and celebration of Divine services, sacraments and burials." The churches, which moved bodily, with their pastors, from Massachusetts to Connecticut, proceeded to exercise the secular powers which we regard as those of the town, but the English township is known by its ecclesiastical name of parish. Several of our towns were first set off as parishes from great town-tracts; yet the town in Connecticut colony essentially separated church and state in government, in that it never restricted political suffrage to church members. As to dates, the official colonial records are followed, as soon as they begin, 1636.

As Indian was not a written but a spoken language, its spelling is often a matter of astonishing versatility. Because of mutilation of the Indian names by Colonial scribes and by the Colonial pronunciation it is frequently impossible to arrive at any definite conclusion with regard to the original meaning. The variety of dialects, even in the Algonquin tribe, varied greatly, even among those living within thirty or forty miles of one another. This added greatly to the complications of spelling Indian words in English.

To add to the confusion, the white men continually applied Indian names to features of the landscape that were not at all in the Indian mind when they coined the word. Thus a word meaning a hill might be applied by the white men to all the surrounding territory and come eventually to mean a pond. And so the Indian names, or their Indian approximates, have come down to us not in the names of the towns, which the white men were creating in the tradition of their own race, but in features of the countryside, streams, mountains, hills and other natural aspects.

THE GREAT SEAL

CONNECTICUT

ARTICLE FOURTH, sec. 23, CONSTITUTION OF CONNECTICUT designates the Secretary of the State as "the keeper of the Seal of the State."

Tradition, patriotism and pride in our State have resulted in official adoption of emblems, symbols and devices which had been recognized over the years by citizens of our State as belonging to Connecticut.

In addition to the Great Seal, the General Assembly, by statute, has selected the official Armorial Bearings, State Flag, State Flower, State Bird, and State Tree. In these pages we have reproduced these treasured items with brief descriptions.

As ordered by the General Assembly.

original drawings of the official Great Seal and the Armorial Bearings may be seen in the Office of the Secretary of the State.

THE AMERICAN FLAG

Out of the profusion of designs and symbolisms inspired by the fervent patriotism and pride of our infant days as a nation, came the flag which is the basis of our present national flag. By 1776 there were many flags for individual military companies and sections of the country and the Continental Congress instructed a committee composed of George Washington, Robert Morris and Colonel George Ross to devise and produce a flag for the United States.

Tradition has it that Betsy Ross, as early as June 1776, made a Stars and Stripes flag from a pencil sketch supplied by Washington. The flag with 13 stripes and 13 stars was officially adopted on June 14, 1777. This was altered to 15 stripes and 15 stars with the admission of Vermont and Kentucky to the Union in 1795.

On April 4, 1818, the final form of our flag was adopted by Congress to allow for the admission of new states. As of July 4, 1960, the flag contains fifty stars with each star symbolizing a state.

THE STATE FLAG

Inspired by a memorial from the Anna Warner Bailey Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, Governor O. Vincent Coffin, on May 29, 1895, introduced to the General Assembly the first proposal for the adoption of a State Flag. On that same day the Assembly passed a resolution appointing a special committee to prepare a designation of the flag already generally accepted as the official flag of the state.

The General Assembly of 1897 provided an official description of the flag setting the dimensions at five feet, six inches in length and four feet, four inches in width, of azure blue silk, with the armorial bearings in argent white silk with the design in natural colors and bordure of the shield embroidered in gold and silver. Below the shield there is a white streamer, cleft at each end, bordered in gold and browns, the streamer bearing in dark blue the motto "Qui Transtulit Sustinet."

THE ARMORIAL BEARINGS

On March 24, 1931, the General Assembly adopted a design for the official Arms of the State, which it ordered drawn and filed with the Secretary of the State. The official description of the Arms called for: A shield of rococo design of white field, having in the center three grape vines, supported and bearing fruit. Below the shield shall be a white streamer, cleft at each end, bordered with two fine lines, and upon the streamer shall be in solid letters of medium bold Gothic the motto

"QUI TRANSTULIT SUSTINET."

(He Who Transplanted Still Sustains)

The official arms and seal of the State of Connecticut, whether as a reproduction, imprint or facsimile, shall be made and used only under the direction and with the approval of the Secretary of the State.

THE MOUNTAIN LAUREL
(Kalmia Latifolia)

STATE FLOWER OF CONNECTICUT

Designated as the State Flower by the General Assembly in 1907, the Mountain Laurel is perhaps the most beautiful of native American Shrubs. Its fragrance and the massed richness of its white and pink blossoms so vividly contrast with the darker colors of the forests and the fields that they have continually attracted the attention of travellers since the earliest days of our colonization. First mentioned in John Smith's "General History" in 1624 specimens were sent to Linnaeus, the famous botanist by Peter Kalm, the Swedish explorer in 1750.

Linnaeus gave it the name of Kalmia Latifolia, honoring the name of his correspondent and at the same time describing the "wide-leaved" characteristic of the plant. In addition to being called "Mountain Laurel", the plant has also been spoken of as "Calico Bush" and "Spoonwood".

In Connecticut, the Mountain Laurel blossoms in the latter part of June. It is typical of the plant that the flower clusters appear in greatest profusion every second or third years, enriching some areas one season and others the next.

THE AMERICAN ROBIN
(Turdus Migratorius)

STATE BIRD OF CONNECTICUT

The American Robin was adopted as the official State Bird by the General Assembly in 1943. The name Robin is applied to a number of familiar birds, but in North America it is the migratory thrush. (Turdus Migratorius.)

Our Robin, a true thrush, is a migratory bird with a reddish-brown or tawny breast and a loud cheery song. It was first called the Robin by the early colonists, in remembrance of the beloved English bird. Despite the protests of some naturalists, we still retain that traditional name.

The original "Robin Red-breast" is a native of the Old World. It is a smaller bird formed much like our Bluebird, with a dark brown back and reddish-orange throat and breast.

Familiar, in the summer, throughout North America, the American Robin is seen from Alaska to Virginia. Most people do not know that many Robins spend the entire winter in New England. They roost among the evergreens in the swamps where they feed on winter berries.

THE STATE CAPITOL

Overlooking beautiful Bushnell Park, the State Capitol, an imposing structure of marble and granite, topped by its gleaming gold dome, was opened for the General Assembly in January 1879. The entire cost of the building was $2,532,524.43. The cost of the furniture was an additional $100,000.

In 1871, the General Assembly appointed a commission to build a capitol in Hartford. A half million dollars was appropriated and the city of Hartford was authorized to appropriate and issue bonds to the extent of one million dollars for the same purpose.

The commission accepted the present site from the city of Hartford and retained James G. Batterson to construct the capitol building. In 1873 and 1875 additional sums of a half million and a million dollars respectively were appropriated.

On the first floor are the offices of the Secretary of the State, Treasurer, Comptroller, Legislative Commissioners, the Bill Room and the Superintendent of the Capitol. The office of the Governor is on the second floor; also on the same floor are the Hall of the House of Representatives and offices of the Senate and House Clerks and the House legislative leaders. On the third floor are the offices of the Lieutenant Governor, Commissioner of Finance, State Auditors, Joint Legislative Management Committee, the Senate Chamber, the Senate legislative leaders and the Press Room. Various hearing rooms for legislative committees are on the fourth floor. A cafeteria is located on the fifth floor.

THE EXECUTIVE RESIDENCE

Georgian Colonial in design, the Executive Residence is located on six beautifully landscaped acres of grounds, at 990 Prospect Avenue, overlooking the City of Hartford. The furniture and decorations of the 19 room governor's residence are 18th Century originals and reproductions.

On loan at the residence are furniture, pewter, ceramics and paintings from the Mabel Brady Garvan Collection of the Yale University Art Gallery. The collection was a gift to Yale University by Francis P. Garvan, a native of East Hartford, Connecticut, and at one time Assistant United States Attorney General. He was one of the outstanding collectors of Americana in the nation. Items loaned to the State are, for the most part, of Connecticut origin and range from a tall case clock nearly 200 years old, which was made by Asabel Cheney of East Hartford, to two pewter tankards made by Thomas Danforth II of Middletown.

The residence was built in 1909 by Dr. George C. F. Williams, who occupied it until 1933. The original cost of the development of the property was $300,000. It was purchased by the State in 1943 for $38,928, after inspection of 38 different pieces of property by the Legislative Committee on the Executive Residence in 1943.

Governor Raymond E. Baldwin and his family occupied the residence on September 14, 1945. The formal public opening ceremonies were held on October 18, 1945.

THE CHARTER OAK

Deep-rooted in the historic tradition of Connecticut, the Charter Oak is one of the most colorful and significant symbols of the spiritual strength and love of freedom which inspired our Colonial forebears in their militant resistance to tyranny. This venerable giant of the forest, over a half century old when it hid the treasured Charter, in 1687, finally fell during a great storm on August 21, 1856.

Two English kings, a royal agent, a colonial hero and a candle-lit room are the figures and backdrop in one of the most thrilling chapters of America's legend of liberty. The refusal of our early Connecticut leaders to give up the Charter, despite royal order and the threat of arms, marked one of the greatest episodes of determined courage in our history.

On October 9, 1662, the General Court of Connecticut formally received the Charter won from King Charles II, by the suave diplomacy of Governor John Winthrop, Jr., who had crossed the ocean for the purpose.

Twenty-five years later, with the succession of James II to the throne, Connecticut's troubles began in earnest. Sir Edmund Andros, His Majesty's agent, followed up failure of various strategies by arriving in Hartford with an armed force to seize the Charter.

After hours of debate, with the Charter on the table between the opposing parties, the candle-lit room went suddenly dark. Moments later when the candles were re-lighted, the Charter was gone. Captain Joseph Wadsworth is credited with having removed and secreted the Charter in the majestic oak on the Wyllys estate.
